Dedication

We, the annual staff and the 1959 senior class of Twin Rivers High School, respectfully dedicate this TREASURE CHEST to our friend, teacher, and coach, Mr. Ervin Hanus, who has always advocated by word and deed that we work diligently, strive hard, and play fair not only on the athletic field but also every minute we play in the continuing game of life.

CLASS MOTTO

"Let Us Go On Unto Perfection."

Prophecy

It is a typical day at Cape Canaveral in 1969. The whole world is tense with eager anticipation! After 10 years of blood, sweat, and toil, and 3,000 cartons of Lucky Strikes, Fred Johnson is finally ready to present to the world his "Spaulonium Special"--famed rocket named in honor of his eminent high school chemistry professor.

Five---four---three---two---one. All eyes upward. It's a success!! It is already starting to transmit back to us.

A wavy flash is seen across the screen. It is getting clear. A huge thirty-room mansion comes into view. And who do we see lying out on the terrace sunning herself, but Gloria Hanson, now Mrs. Dave Torkelson. Dave is now Governor of the state of Oklahoma. After acquiring much publicity with his disc jockey show, he decided to run for governor and was elected by a landslide. Of course, the various talents of his campaign speaker, Norma Klein, helped tremendously.

In the spacious 40-acre back yard of the governor's estate, we see Dick Coleman, head of Coleman Kennels, exercising his great Dane, Herbert, for the big dog race to be held later on in the day. Ace jockey, Bert Hawkins has just brought Herbert to a barking stop. Ron Zeman was a successful bookie for the races, until Carol Wilson of Wilson's F.B.I. caught up with him. . . Now they're doing fine as a team, raising little F.B.Iers for their country.

The picture blurs--no, it's coming back into focus. No wonder there was a blur-- we are above the freeway between Bode and Livermore. There is a little red and white car down there stopped by the side of the road. Head patrolman, Mick Helmen, is giving Steve Kraabel a ticket (for going too slow and impeding traffic).

As we travel on, we meet a pink helicopter!! Seated in it is Dutch Rutz! He is overseeing his 1,000-acre tobacco plantation. Sandra Sprong, his able chauffeur, is a former perfume sniffer for Tussy's.

There flashes across the screen the image of face and figure of Ron Hewitt, manager of the successful Detroit Tigers--8th place finishers in the league for the past three years. Well, look there!!! One more of the class of '59 is with the Tigers! It's Joann Clarken, Bat Boy Supreme!!!

The tracker screen is a little fuzzy right now, but it looks as if there are wide fields below. Now the picture clears. It's potato and pea fields, and there's a large sign next to the field--PEDERSON'S POTATOES AND PEAS. Guess Karen turned out to be a pea picker.

What is that horse and rider doing????? Why, down the lane lopes the famous singing cowboy, Don Newton!! We hear he's made quite a name for himself on the KQTV barn dance on Saturday nights.

Look! There's Chicago down there! There's the famous Brookfield Zoo. And coming out of the manager's house is none other than that famous Zoologist, Ron Adams. Ron has two loyal employees with him--Jim Howard, Monkeykeeper and Judy Collins, who highlights every Sunday at the zoo by wrestling with the alligators.

A little farther over there is a small tent . . . wonder what it is . . . The sign says FLEA CIRCUS, and from the scratching of the crowd, the show must be ready to begin. There comes the owner, and it's none other than Phil Gjerstad!!!!!! Phil's Flea Circus, HOW CHARMING!!

Wrigley's gum advertisements are still on the billboards, which is surprising: we had just heard that the company had been sold to Jerry McCullough who gained controlling interest by saving a nickel every time he bought a package of their gum. We heard too, that Jerry just married Patty Taylor for the publicity since she had just won the world's championship for bubble gum blowers!

There's the training camp of the world champion heavyweight, Karen Zeimet. She has just gone into training for the defense of her title, recently won from the contender, Floyd Patterson!

The scene seems to switch once again on our tracker screen, and we're in the middle of the painted desert. Jim Thacker is chief painter and retoucher to keep one of America's scenic scenes scenic.

There in the middle of the heat-ridden desert is Schwendemann's Soda Shop! Kenny bought the only water hole there was and sells water for a dollar a glass. LOCK, way out there in the uninhabitable wastes, carrying her trusty snake hunting gun, is the fabulously renowned rattlesnake hunter, Jean Kropf. Jean does her own hunting so she can serve rattlesnake steaks in her famous Superior Cafe!

The screen seems to blur once more. But suddenly there on the tracer is a picture of Reno, Nevada; and blazed in neon lights for all to see is Chris's Casino, renowned gambling spot, owned and managed by Rolland Christianson. Seems Chris broke the bank with his own original system!! The lunchroom of the casino has become famous for its Rightside-Inside-Outside-Upside-Down Cake, the recipe of the famous chef--Curtis Bruvik.

We're getting our "Spauldonium Special" near outer space now. Across the screen flashes the visage of Dave Evenson, now located on Cloud #9 for the purpose of directing the satellite traffic. Coming to a screeching halt (as the traffic light is turned red by Spaceman Evenson) is Haley's Comet, driven by Mrs. Haley, the former Sharon Fox. Sharon has a little difficulty making the thousand miles of space travel on a daily schedule to get her husband to work on the Milky Way. He polishes the various stars to keep them brighter and lighter.

Once more the screen gives us a broader picture of the earth planet below. Into focus comes the continent of Dark Africa. Look at the tribe of Piggy Head-hunters down there. Doesn't their chief look familiar???? And how come he's got red hair! Why, if it isn't Jim Lane, our former classmate!!!! The pigmies were so impressed with his size that they made him the Great White Father, I suppose.

And look over there! There's the safari of the big game hunter, John Kraabel. Seems he made world-wide publicity when he bagged the largest elephant--with a slingshot--and he's the only hunter who ever brought in a rhinoceros with a peashooter.

Next comes the picture of the diamond mines. There, sparkling in the sunlight, is the diamond-studded form of Gentleman Jake as he oversees the working of his mines. We understand Carol hasn't really felt he accomplished much in the last ten years--except for his billions of $$$$$$$'s.

What's that shooting across the screen??? It's a star!! It's a bird!! It's a plane!! IT'S OPPERDAHL!! Peter Oppedahl has been starring in the new Superman TV Show; but recently, while on location, his jet locomotion belt ran wild. Pete has been in orbit ever since!

Well, now that the "Spaulonium Special" has faded out of radio-television range, and we have lost the picture on our tracer screen, and Fearless Freddie Fosoick Johnson has smoked his 3,001 carton of Lucky Strike cigarettes which he has strewn all over the floor, I'd better pick up my broom, scrubbrushes, and mop, and get to my job as scrubwoman at the testing center!

Last Will and Testament

- I, Fred Johnson, will a ticket for a ride on the Spaulonium Special in the future to Mr. Spaulding.
- I, Don Newton, will my date book to John Wickre.
