Walk Down Memory Lane
Volume 23*

*The effort shall not have been in vain
If through this annual you live again.
The memories that made this year
And the many things that happened here.
If when looking here in on some future date
You can within your mind recreate.*

*The pepfast and games
The faces and names,
Concerts and plays
The sunfilled days,
The budding romances
The banquets and dances.*

*All this and so much more
Took place behind the doors
Of the place we call T.R. High.*

Anonymous

We, the Senior Class, would like to dedicate this annual to our parents, friends, and teachers, who during the years have given us the courage and strength to greet today and the memories to cling to tomorrow.

She giggles if it's funny and one may
truly say, that if it isn't funny she giggles
anyway.

Hal Baugous Studying is for the birds, and I can't fly.

Tim Bennett
Oh, school! That's where I have been going for thirteen years!

Diane Berte
A Sunday school face
with Saturday night
ideas.

Sheryl Berte
Smiling again! Won't your face crack?

Kim Bjornson
I'm not late for school
it's just my shadow.

Jim Bonde
If I'm crazy it's only
because it makes things
easier.

Beverly Bratland
Love makes the world
go around. Catch me
I'm dizzy!

Daniel Coleman
If at first you don't succeed you're about average.

Kelly Coleman
The thing she wants to get most out of high school is herself.

Michelle Conlon Studying is like the
heavens glorious sun
but who wants to be sunburned.

Leisha Dahl
There's room at the top but who wants to climb.

S/Seniors

Amy Eisenbarth
I love school but of course I could be lying.

Wendy Fath
She was cut out to be an angel but mistakes do happen.

Jimmy Frederiksen
He has three speeds, slow-slower-stop.

Susan Gales
I don't know where I'm going but I'm on my way.

10/Seniors

Tony Grimm
I love work. I could sit and look at it for hours.

David Higgins
I'm not misbehaving. It's just my nature.

Jill Hoversten
She's quiet but nobody knows her other side.

Lyle Hundertmark
School warps my brain!

Kathleen Jaeger
I'm very athletic but it depends which sport
you're talking about.

Carol Johnson
I've had spring fever
ever since July.

Craig Lane
I've made it as a senior, now what?

Lori Lempke
There's more to do at night than study!

*Barbara Matheson
She shifts her brain

Geir . . .

TR was proud to have Geir Dingsted as their foreign exchange student this past year. Geir came from Norway and stayed in the Victor Banwart's home. While at Twin Rivers Geir was active in football, track, and model UN. During Homecoming he was crowned 'Mr. Legs' and received the top five award for the Senior class at Awards Night.

Even though Bode did not have the snowy slopes Norway has, Geir did enjoy farming and being involved in a rural community. Life in Iowa was really a new experience for Geir but his stay was a very enjoyable and memorable one. We will all miss Geir, but wish him good luck in all he does.

Shirley Knudson

Shirley Knudson worked in the Twin Rivers' High School as secretary for 18 years. During those years Shirley was the board secretary, accountant, bus coordinator, took care of the hot lunch report, worked with the payroll, did filing, and many other jobs. These tasks were always fulfilled promptly, accurately, and with a smile. We at Twin Rivers will miss Shirley but wish her the best of luck in the years to come.

Coach's Corner

The TR Boy's Track team brought home honors to TR High this spring by placing class C runner-up State Champions. Coach Schoonbeck took eight young men to the state track meet after capturing the River Valley Conference title. Dan and Dave Betr, Randy Bakken, and Robbie Foth competed in the 880 relay while Dave Higgins, Randy Bakken, and the Betr brothers ran the 440 relay. Craig Lane ran the high hurdles, Jeff McKibban competed in the discus throw and Gary Berte threw the shot put. TR should be very proud of these young men's accomplishments.

Twin Rivers music department gave its audiences an evening of song and dance this spring with its presentation of "Bye, Bye, Birdie." The musical centered around typical American teenagers in the 50's and their "national hero," Conrad Birdie.

This year the musical was expanded to two nights. Each night was successfully attended and audiences were delighted by such musical numbers as "An English Teacher," "How Lovely to be a Woman," "Put on a Happy Face," "Kids," "Baby Talk to Me," and "Rosie." This year the performers were accompanied by the pit band, another TR first.

Many long hours and hard work made "Bye, Bye, Birdie" a very memorable experience for those involved and for all who attended their fine musical production.

We Begin, We Finish

*The Door Has Opened At Last, We Enter —
Most Of Us Eagerly, Others Regretfully.
The Silent Halls Are Made Noisy
With Our Words,
The Empty Desks Are Filled With Our Thoughts, Our Words And Our Laughter.
The Short Interrupted Flights Of Paper Airplanes
And The Consolation Of Chewing Gum Measure Many Monotonous Hours.
Sterile Boredom, Hopeful Speculation On Tonight's Game
And Spring Fever's Symptoms Are In Our Minds Forever.
And When It Is Over, It Is Forever Ended
We Will Have Been Released From The Shackles Of Another's Will
Into The Frightening Freedom Of Responsibility.
We Must Take Our Lives Into Our Own Hands And Make Of Them What We Will.*
