

1991

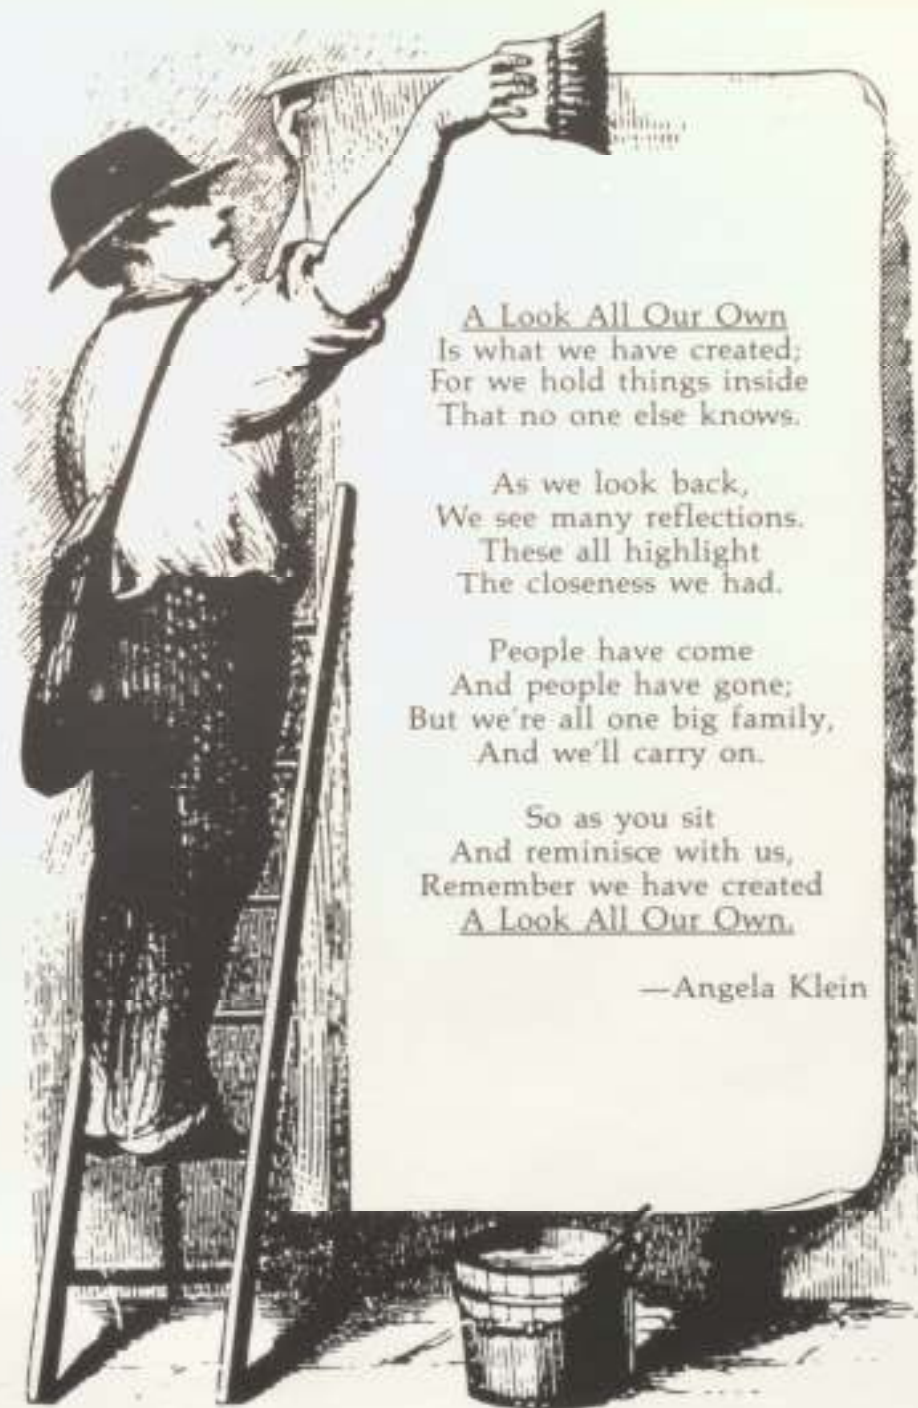

A Look All Our Own

A Look All Our Own
Is what we have created;
For we hold things inside
That no one else knows.

As we look back,
We see many reflections.
These all highlight
The closeness we had.

People have come
And people have gone;
But we're all one big family,
And we'll carry on.

So as you sit
And reminisce with us,
Remember we have created
A Look All Our Own.

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1991 dedicates A Look All Our Own to Mr. and Mrs. Gruber. Their guidance in athletics and academics has helped us mature from the freshmen we were when they first arrived here, to the seniors we are now. We appreciate the time, concern, and unselfish efforts of our second "mom" and "dad".

"Born Choosers"

When all of the people
Or most of the crowd
Move like sheep to the slaughter
Born Choosers stand proud.

They feel the adversity
From without and within
Sometimes tempted to lose
They've chosen to win.

They follow their conscience
And not the crowd's flow
If they fall down and stumble
They just get up and go.

Born Choosers set limits
Born Choosers set goals
When others won't sacrifice
Born Choosers pay the toll.

They know life is too precious
To waste on a whim
They keep eyes to the future
When the present looks dim.

Born Choosers aren't users
Born Choosers are friends
Born Choosers stick by you
And fight to the end.

If such wisdom and strength
Sounds too good to be true
Remember, my friend
This Born Chooser is you...

If you choose.

GOODBYE

Yearbook Memories

At the end of the year,
When we've all said good-
by,
Shed all our tears,
Let out our sighs.
Promising we'll keep in touch,
Never thought school would mean this much.
The school year went by so fast,
Now we wish that it would last.

But now that it's happened,
Gone by all too soon.
All those memories to keep
in our minds,
Hoping that none of them
will ever die.
Thinking of all the time it took,
To put all the memories in this yearbook.
— Kathleen Derbyshire

This 1990-1991 yearbook was constructed by the talents of:
